A motor insurance policy / takaful certificate (collectively referred to as “motor policy”) provides financial protection to you in the event your vehicle is involved in a road accident or is stolen.

However, there are limits to the extent of financial protection provided, so it is important that you understand the scope of protection under each type of motor policy.

extent of cover

Illustrated below are the types of motor policies available in Malaysia and scope of financial protection provided by an insurance company / takaful operator (collectively referred to as “insurer”):

add-on covers

To widen the scope of protection of a motor policy, vehicle owners may purchase add-on covers for additional premium contribution. Below are some examples of these add-on covers :

Type of add-on covers	Protects against...
Flood	Damages to your vehicle in event of a flood
Windscreen	Sudden breakage of windscreen not resulting from a road accident
Legal liability to passenger	Your passenger(s) suing you for injury caused to them (except your own family members)
Legal liability of passenger	People outside of your vehicle suing you for injuries caused by your passenger(s)
Compensation for Assessed Repair Time	Inability to use your vehicle while it is being repaired
Personal Accident	Any injury to you or your passenger (including family members)

The types of compensation which may be claimed under a motor policy depends on the type of motor policy applicable and prevailing laws:

Type of compensation which may be claimed (depending on the policy applicable and prevailing laws)	If you are a vehicle owner and have a :			If you are a pedestrian / owner of non-vehicular property that was involved in an accident
	Comprehensive policy	Third Party, Fire and Theft policy	Third Party policy
Property damage	Theft of your vehicle	Make a Theft claim against your own insurer	Make a Theft claim against your own insurer	Not eligible to claim	Not Applicable
	Damage to your vehicle / property due to road accident	If other person caused the accident: Make a Third Party Property Damage claim (TPPD) against the other person's insurer; If you caused the accident: Make an Own Damage claim (OD) against your own insurer	Make a Third Party Property Damage claim (TPPD) against the other person's insurer	Make a Third Party Property Damage claim (TPPD) against the other person's insurer	Make a Third Party Property Damage claim (TPPD) against the other person's insurer
	Compensation for assessed repair time (CART) (compensation awarded only to drivers found not responsible for accident)	Make loss of use claim against the other person's insurer			Not Applicable
Bodily injury / Death (list is not exhaustive)	Pain, suffering and loss of amenities from injury sustained	Make a Third Party Bodily Injury or Death claim (TPBID) against the other person's insurer
	Medical expenses / nursing costs
	Loss of earnings / loss of future earnings / earning capacity
	Loss of dependency
	Funeral expenses
	Bereavement

IMPORTANT NOTICE

- You must ensure that the insured value of your vehicle is adequate. If the sum insured of your vehicle is lower than its market value at the point of purchasing insurance, your vehicle is deemed to be underinsured. If your vehicle is underinsured, compensation for damages to your vehicle will be proportionately lower.
- A Passenger Liability cover only provides protection to the passengers in your vehicle who are not your family members. You are advised to purchase a Personal Accident policy for yourself as well as for your family members so that you and your family members are protected should you be the party at fault in a road accident.

You have a right to appoint a lawyer to advise you on your legal rights

Introducing Accident Assist, a new public service provided by the Malaysian insurance and takaful industry to members of the public who are seeking immediate roadside assistance in the event of a road accident. Accident Assist will also respond to basic or common enquiries relating to motor policies. It is a dedicated tele-service line manned by customer service officers operating 24 hours daily.

Accident Assist aims to improve the overall process following a road accident by providing road accident victims with timely roadside assistance and objective guidance on making a motor claim.

Accident Assist is managed by general insurers and operated by Telekom Malaysia.

Accident Assist can help you with these:

- 24 hours / 7 days a week helpline
- Guide you to obtain towing services to approved workshops
- Provide information and answer basic or common enquiries which you may have on making a motor claim
- Provide relevant information should you be involved in a road accident such as:
 - nearest hospital to you
 - nearest police station to you
 - nearest fire station to you
 - nearest workshop to you

Be calm, polite and courteous. DO NOT admit liability or offer any settlement or payment

Note down as much of the following in the Accident Notification Form (Form A) provided in this claims guide :-

- The personal particulars of the driver(s) involved in the road accident
 - name(s), IC number(s), address(es), driving licence number(s) and telephone contact(s) (if possible)
- The name of the insurer of the other vehicle(s)
- Make, model and registration number(s) of the other vehicle(s) involved in the road accident
- Registration number of tow truck(s) (if any)

Make a simple diagram of the accident scene in Form A. This will help you when making a police report later on, as you will also be required to do so.

Snap photos and note down the extent of the damage(s) to the vehicles / property involved (if the situation permits)

Immediately call either your insurer's roadside assistance service (if provided) or Accident Assist for assistance. Accident Assist will ask you some simple questions about the accident and will either connect you to your own insurer or advise you on the nearest panel workshop which you may contact in order to arrange for towing services or to repair your vehicle.

As an alternative to calling your insurer or Accident Assist to inform about the road accident, you may also fill in Form A and submit it to either your own insurer and / or Persatuan Insurans Am Malaysia (PIAM) or Malaysia Takaful Association (MTA) within 7 days of the date of the road accident. PIAM and MTA may be contacted at:

*Persatuan Insurans Am Malaysia

Make a Police Report of the road accident. You are required by law to lodge a police report as soon as practicable, and in any case within 24 hours of a road accident / theft of your vehicle.

Cooperate with the investigator / loss adjuster appointed by the insurance company to undertake an independent :

- assessment of the repairs recommended by the panel workshop; or
- investigation of the theft of your vehicle.

In order to make a claim, compile as much of the following documents as possible and submit them to the insurer (refer to the table below) within the stipulated timeframe :

- Own Damage, No-Fault Own Damage¹ and Theft claims :
 - Within 7 days of the date of accident / loss if you are not physically disabled or hospitalized following the event.
 - Within 30 days or as soon as practicable if you are physically disabled or hospitalized as a result of the event.
- Other claims :
 - As soon as practicable

However, claimants may subsequently be requested by the insurer to furnish additional documentation.

¹ A No-Fault Own Damage claim is a benefit for private cars with Comprehensive policy and is only applicable if you are in an accident with another private car with Comprehensive policy. It is an alternative to filing a Third Party Property Damage claim. Under a No-Fault Own Damage claim, you can seek compensation against your insurer instead of the other person's insurer for the damages the other person has caused to your vehicle in the event of a road accident. This is a benefit to you as it saves you the hassle of dealing with the other person's insurer.

In making a motor claim involving third party bodily injury and death or third party property damage, you may pursue your claim directly with the other vehicle's insurer or appoint a lawyer to act on your behalf at any time.

Should you choose to pursue your claim directly with the other vehicle's insurer, you should ensure that the compensation that you are to receive from the insurer is adequate. Please exercise care and where necessary seek expert advice in reaching any settlement for compensation with the other vehicle's insurer as such settlement is likely to be final.

If you are of the view that the compensation being offered to you is inadequate, you may further negotiate with the other vehicle's insurer or you may wish to consult a lawyer.

If you are making an Own Damage claim:

When you make an Own Damage claim under your Comprehensive policy, your insurer may also include additional charges, including :

- Betterment - Portion of repair charges to be borne by owners of vehicles aged 5 years and above if new franchise parts are used in repairs instead of parts of the same age as the vehicle.
- Excess - A proportion of the total repair cost that you are to bear yourself as per the terms and conditions of the motor policy.
- Endorsement 2 (f) (private cars only) - You will bear RM400.00 of each claim made by you, if at the time of the accident your vehicle was driven by a person :
 - who is under the Age of 21 years; or
 - who is the holder of a Provisional Driving Licence (L-Licence); or
 - who is the holder of a Probationary Driving Licence (P-Licence); or
 - who is not named in the motor policy; or
 - named in the motor policy who is less than the age of 21 years and / or the holder of a Provisional Driving Licence (L-Licence) and / or the holder of a Probationary Driving Licence (P-Licence)

You will lose your No Claim Discount (NCD) entitlement at the next year renewal of your motor policy.

If you are making a No-Fault Own Damage claim:

You will not lose your NCD entitlement. However, you will be subject to the same charges under an Own Damage claim (Betterment, Excess and Endorsement 2(f)).

You may then write to the other party's insurer seeking reimbursement for all of the above charges except betterment.

However, if the accident is found to be caused by you, your No-Fault Own Damage Claim will be converted into an Own Damage claim. In this case, you will lose your NCD entitlement at the next renewal of your motor policy.

If you are making a theft claim:

To ensure that the investigation is thorough and to allow possible recovery by police authorities, your insurer may require a reasonable process time of the following time frame :

- 6 months from the date of notification of theft; and / or
- when official police investigations have been completed, whichever is earlier.

After notifying your insurer of the theft of your vehicle, if you are informed that your vehicle is recovered :

- do NOT take possession of your vehicle from any authority / party unless authorised by the police; and
- immediately notify your insurer / agent so that your insurer may make proper arrangement to recover your vehicle and conduct an independent survey of your vehicle.

Under a normal Comprehensive motor policy, insurers will pay you compensation equal to the present market value of your vehicle at the point of theft or the sum insured of the vehicle (whichever is less). If you wish to be compensated on a sum insured basis, please ask your insurer about the possibility of converting your Comprehensive policy to an Agreed Value Comprehensive policy.

If you are making a Third Party Bodily Injury claim or a Dependency claim:

If you and / or passengers in your vehicle are injured in an accident, you and / or passengers in your vehicle may claim compensation for injuries sustained from the insurer of the other vehicle. Compensation will only be paid by the insurer of the other vehicle's driver in the event the insured driver is found to have caused the accident.

If you and / or passengers in your vehicle were to succumb to injuries in a road accident, your and / or your passengers' dependents (spouse, children and parents) may make a dependency claim against the insurer of the other vehicle. Compensation will only be paid by the insurer of the other vehicle's driver in the event the insured driver is found to have caused the accident.

A dependency claim may be made provided the deceased was gainfully employed prior to the accident. Such a claim is by the deceased's dependents for loss of financial support minus certain deduction as the dependents would now be deprived of the deceased's earnings or income on which they had depended prior to the accident which caused his demise.

If you are found to be responsible for the accident, you and your passengers will not be able to receive any compensation from the insurer of the other vehicle. If you are found to be partially responsible, you and / or your passengers may receive only partial compensation.

If you are making a Third Party Property Damage claim:

If your property (including vehicle) is damaged in a road accident caused by the other party, you may claim for compensation from the other party's insurer.

The insurer may provide compensation for the following items :

- Cost of repair to your property to return it to its previous state
- Cost of replacing your property with another that is alike in terms of age, value and / or condition
- Cost of loss of use of your vehicle i.e charges for rental car (up to a specified limit)
