

Publication	The Star	Section / Page	Online	Date	31/12/2021
Headline	Nor Azman is New CEO of STMB

"He will play a pivotal role in driving the growth of the group's business as we aim to scale our family takaful business to new heights and further strengthen our foothold in the industry," said chairman

PETALING JAYA: Syarikat Takaful Malaysia Keluarga Bhd has appointed Nor Azman Zainal as the new group chief executive officer following the retirement of Datuk Sri Mohamed Hassan Kamil.

The appointment is effective Jan 1, 2022. Nor Azman graduated from City University, London, with a Bachelor of Science (Hons) in Actuarial Science.

"He will play a pivotal role in driving the growth of the group's business as we aim to scale our family takaful business to new heights and further strengthen our foothold in the industry," said chairman Datuk Mohammed Hussein in a statement.