

Read this Product Disclosure Sheet before you decide to participate in Takaful myHome Solar. Please be sure to also read the general terms and conditions.

1. What is this product about?

This product provides you the coverage against loss of or damage to your solar Photovoltaic (PV) system installed on the rooftops of a private dwelling house, or any part thereof solely used for residential purposes only.

2. What are the Shariah concepts applicable?

This product applies the following Shariah concepts:

- a. Hibah refers to a transfer of ownership of an asset from a donor to a recipient without any consideration. Under this product, the benefits payable from General Takaful Fund ("GTF") is based on Hibah.
- b. Ju'alah refers to a contract where a party offers a specified reward to another party who achieved a determined result. Under this product, the participant allows Syarikat Takaful Malaysia Am Berhad ("We", "Us", "Our", or "Takaful Malaysia") to receive a portion of the distributable surplus arising from the GTF as a performance incentive for Takaful Malaysia's achievement in managing the GTF which results in the surplus.
- c. Qard refers to a contract of lending money by a lender to a borrower where the latter is bound to repay an equivalent replacement amount to the lender. Under this product, Takaful Malaysia will lend an amount of money to the GTF without interest if the GTF is in deficit.
- d. Tabarru' means donation for charitable purposes. Under this product, the participant donates a portion of the contribution to the GTF to help other participants. Tabarru' takes into effect when the participant contributed to the GTF.
- e. Wakalah refers to a contract where a party, as principal authorizes another party as his agent to perform a particular task on matters that may be delegated, with or without the imposition of a fee. Under this product, the participant authorizes Takaful Malaysia to manage the GTF and in return, Takaful Malaysia will receive a Wakalah fee.

6. What are some of the keys terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

Some of the key terms and conditions that you should be aware of are:

a. Duty of DisclosureConsumer Takaful Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Takaful wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this Takaful). You must answer the questions fully and accurately. Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of Takaful, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of Takaful. The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of Takaful is entered into, varied or renewed with us. In addition to answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this Takaful), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied. You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of Takaful has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this Takaful) is inaccurate or has changed.

Non-Consumer Takaful Contract

Pursuant to Paragraph 4(1) of Schedule 9 of the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Takaful for a purpose related to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to disclose any matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied and any matter a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be relevant, otherwise it may result in avoidance of your contract of Takaful, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of Takaful. The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of Takaful is entered into, varied or renewed with us. You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of Takaful has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this Takaful) is inaccurate or has changed.

- b. Change in Risk - you must inform us or your intermediaries in writing of any material changes during the certificate period so that the necessary amendments are endorsed into your certificate.
- c. Duty of Participant - you shall take all reasonable precautions for the safety of the property covered.
- d. You must ensure that your sum covered must be at least eighty-five percent (85%) of the actual cost on replacement value basis where we will reinstate, repair or replace the loss or damaged property without any deductions being made for wear, tear or depreciation provided that the sum covered is adequate to cover the total cost of replacing.
- e. You are advised to pay the contributions to us either by cash, credit card, debit card, other electronic payment, or cheques (cheques should be made only in the name of Takaful Malaysia).
- f. Claims – Written notice of any event likely to give rise to a claim should be submitted to Takaful Malaysia as soon as reasonably possible and in any case not later than thirty (30) days of the accident causing such damage or loss.
- g. Takaful Contribution Warranty – Contribution due to Takaful Malaysia must be paid and received by Takaful Malaysia within sixty (60) days from the inception date. If the condition is not complied with, this certificate shall be automatically cancelled and Takaful Malaysia shall be entitled to the pro-rated contribution for the period Takaful Malaysia provide the cover.
